Holiday Craft Fair at UCS

Bennington, Vt. — Looking for a gift that conveys real meaning? You'll find it at the Developmental Services Holiday Craft Fair and Tag Sale, Friday, December 4 at the Atwood Center, 335 Dewey Street.

"If you need gifts, we've got them," said Employment Connections Manager Howie Wright, who is coordinating the sale. "If you're looking for one-of-a-kind keepsakes, we've got them."

The Craft Fair is operated by people with a developmental disability. The crafters start with an idea and end with a sale. Along the way, they develop a variety of new skills that can lead to fuller employment.

The Craft Fair will get under way at 10 am and continue until 3 pm. Many items in the tag sale will be priced to sell.

UCS Developmental Services Division works to help employers discover that people with developmental disabilities can make great employees. When there is the right match between employer and employee it can be a long standing, mutually beneficial relationship.

United Counseling Service serves children, adults, families, and seniors through nationally recognized counseling, early care and education, and clinical support. Visit www.ucsvt.org to find out more.
